

a Background co-varies with the species label

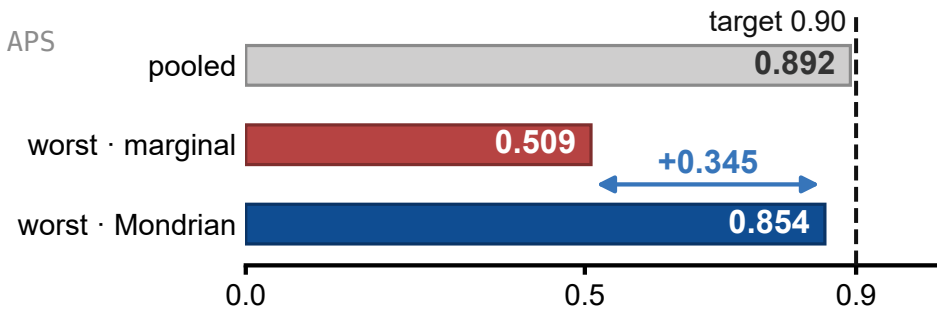

The background predicts the label for 95% of the data.
Red marks the two groups where it does not.

b One pooled threshold under-covers the rare group c Calibration alone recovers it worst-group coverage

d And it is paid in set size

